

Broadlands Banter

Nulli Comparatio

January 09

Cadets Celebrate Success.

Air Cadets of 222 (Broadlands) Squadron ATC, celebrated the achievements of its cadets at their annual awards dinner for 2008. Over ninety cadets, staff, parents, family and friends attended the evening held at The Lodge Inn, Salhouse.

Guest of Honour was Mr Graham Warr a retired Adult Warrant Officer who was part of the unit for fifteen years. Other guests included representatives from Broadland High School in Hoveton where the squadron is based and Mr Chris Green, Store Manager and his wife of Roys of Wroxham.

After dinner, Flt Lt Ian Fuller, Officer Commanding, reflected on the cadets activities throughout the year including adventure training camps in Llandbedr, Wales, flying and gliding and fund-raising successes for both the squadron and the East Anglian Air Ambulance. The evening was rounded off with entertainment and a disco.

The winning cadets included Cadet Rebecca Devlin of South Walsham who was named best new recruit for 2008 and Cdt Corporal Daniel Armitage, who received two awards for 'Drill and Department' and squadron marksmanship. Cdt Sergeant Jennifer Frapwell of Tunstead collected an award for 'Best Attendance' but it was her younger sister – newly promoted Cdt Corporal Sophie Frapwell, who scooped the evening's most prestigious award, being named the squadron's 'Cadet of the Year'.

Cpl Sophie Frapwell receives Cadet of the Year from former 222 Sqn Adult Warrant Officer Graham Warr.

Quick Quotes: "Go Team"

Sgt Mark Powley

Great Start to 2009

Just five days into 2009, 222 Sqn cadets had already been Flying & gliding and less than two weeks into the year we have our first promotion Sophie Frapwell to Corporal.

Sgt Holly Smith has also been awarded a BTEC in Aviation (2 GCSE's)

Old favourites live on...Oops up side ya head

Cadets Raise Vital Funds

The cadets and staff of 222 Sqn wish to thank shoppers of Roys of Wroxham for their generosity and support they showed over the Christmas period.

As part of the ACO's fund raising strategy for 2008, the young cadets packed shoppers bags at the supermarket's flagship store in their home village of Hoveton. Over the two days, Roys customers gave donations in recognition of the cadets efforts totalling in excess of £1000. The squadron will make a contribution to the East Anglian Air Ambulance with the remaining funds aiding the completion of a new storage facility at the Sqn's HQ at Broadland High School.

Honours & Awards

Cadet of the Year	Sophie Frapwell
Probationer	Rebecca Devlin
Marksmanship	Daniel Armitage
Photographer	Holly Smith
Drill & Department	Daniel Armitage
Committee Cup	Mary Wheeler
Freebie	Dale Haskell
SNCO's Cup	Matt Marsh
Best Attendance	Jenny Frapwell
Sportsperson	Liam Upton
CO's Pot	ASgt Mark Powley

Boss' box:

Well done to all the Cadets for their efforts during 2008.

With 2009 already off to a great start, it promises to be very rewarding and action packed year for all Squadron members.

January -

17th - 18th— NCO Training Course

24th— Sqn Walk & Weapon Training